FMC Corporation Announces Butyllithium Price Increase

PHILADELPHIA, September 12, 2016 – FMC Corporation (NYSE: FMC) announced today that effective October 1, 2016, or as contracts permit, it will increase prices for its specialty organics products in all global regions. This includes all grades of butyllithium products. All standard and non-standard pricing for specialty organics products will increase by 10 percent.

“Prices of our butyllithium and other specialty organic products are being adjusted in line with the increases realized across our lithium product portfolio,” said Chris Senyk, global marketing director, FMC Lithium. “We remain committed to our butyllithium customers and continue to invest in our global manufacturing network for the reliable supply of high-quality specialty organics.”
